

In November of 2017, MTSU Songwriting was awarded a grant for $10,000 by the Academy of Country Music Lifting Lives Foundation. More opportunities will be awarded to MTSU Songwriting students through the visiting of music professionals. This donation was made to support the Department of Recording Industry's ongoing Commercial Songwriting Program expansion, program director Odie Blackmon said.