

SUSAN K. BRADLEY J.D.

---

EDUCATION

B.S. in Public Relations, Western Kentucky University - 1983

J.D. University of Tennessee School of Law, Knoxville - 1990

---

EMPLOYMENT

August 2011 – Present      Middle Tennessee State University

Professor of Legal Environment of Business, Industrial Relations and Accounting & Legal Issues for Managers 6100 –teach students the realities and practical application of various laws, federal and state, which affect businesses in Tennessee including employment and labor law.

1996 – 2013      Wilson & Bradley Law Office

Partner/Attorney -Litigated workers compensation, labor/union, employment and social security, domestic and general matters. Aided in formulating various workers compensation laws.

1999 – 2014      City of Murfreesboro

Administrative Law Judge for the Murfreesboro Disciplinary Board – Adjudicated employment law issues relating to Murfreesboro City employees which included ruling on evidentiary and procedural motions.

2000 – present      Appointed by Rutherford Chancery and General Session judges as guardian ad litem on various conservator cases.

1990 – 1996      Agee, Allen, Godwin, Morris and Laurenzi Law office

Attorney – litigated labor law issues including representation case, unfair labor practices, arbitration hearings as well as various employment law issues.

1988 – 1990      United International Paperworkers Union

Law Clerk – research and wrote memorandums on various labor and employment issues.

---

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Rule 31 Listed Family Mediator; 2004 to present

Who's Who Among American Law Students, 8th and 9th Edition,

Admitted to bar in 1990, U.S. District Court, Eastern and Middle District;

Admitted to U.S. Court of Appeals, Sixth Circuit

Tennis Scholarship at Western Kentucky University 3 years

Former Board member of Fellowship Methodist Church,

Volunteer for Murfreesboro Volunteer Group and Journey's in Community Living.

---