

Ann Youngblood Mulhearn

Middle Tennessee State University
MTSU Box 23
Murfreesboro, Tennessee 37132
Ann.mulhearn@mtsu.edu

EDUCATION

PhD., University of Memphis (2012), Memphis, Tennessee

Dissertation: Southern Graces: Women, Faith, and the Quest for Social Justice in Memphis, Tennessee, 1950-1969

Major Field: United States since 1877

Minor Fields: United States to 1877; Latin America

M.A., History, University of Louisiana-Monroe (1999) Monroe, Louisiana

Thesis: Dangerous Liaisons: The Louisiana Farmers' Alliance, the Anti-Lottery League, and the Gubernatorial Election of 1892

B.A., History, Northeast Louisiana University (1992) Monroe, Louisiana

Minors: Government, French

summa cum laude

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Lecturer Middle Tennessee State University (August 2018 – present) develop and teach online survey courses using the D2L course software; incorporated online and distance learning technology into curriculum; tutored students in analytical writing; advised students on course and career options; research and write scholarly articles for publication, including oral history interviews; present research and papers at academic conferences; other departmental duties as determined by chair

Classes developed/taught: U.S. History to 1877; U.S. History Since 1877

Outreach and Education Logistics Coordinator Hattiloo Theatre (May 2015 – August 2018) coordinated scheduling, spacing, budget, and other logistical aspects of youth and outreach programming; facilitated relationships with public and private sector funding partners; supervised staff and interns; oversaw development and coordination of youth and outreach programming; developed curriculum for educational outreach programs; assisted with writing and editing grant proposals as well as development and implementation of theatre's strategic plan

Copy Editor (contract) National Civil Rights Museum (January 2018) Copy editing and proofreading all MLK50: Where Do We Go From Here? Commemorative Exhibition and MLK50: A Legacy Remembered exhibition texts including panels, titles, and captions

Adjunct Instructor Northwest Mississippi Community College (January 2016 – August 2018) developed and taught online survey courses using the Canvas course software; incorporated online and distance learning technology into curriculum; tutored students in analytical writing; advised students on course and career options

Classes developed/taught: U.S. History to 1877; U.S. History Since 1877

Fulbright Roving Scholar in American Studies Fulbright Foundation of Norway (August 2012-June, 2013) developed and led English-embedded workshops for students and teachers; presented research and served on panels discussing American history and current events at professional conferences and meetings; coordinated booking workshops and travel to upper secondary schools throughout Norway and abroad

Workshops developed/taught: (for students) Political Junkie: Election 2012; Founding Rivals: Jefferson and Hamilton in American Politics; Beyond King: the Civil Rights Movement Reconsidered; Heart of Atlanta et al: Living the Constitution; This Land Is Your Land: Music As Politics; October Snow: A Rural Girlhood in Reagan's America. (for teachers) From Socrates to Fox News: Developing Historical Thinking Skills; Sex, Drugs, and Rock n Roll: History as Story; Digital: The Last (Historical) Frontier – Where to Get and How to Use IT in the Classroom

Adjunct Instructor University of Memphis (August 2003-August 2007; August 2010-May, 2012; August 2013-present) lead developer of hybrid dual-credit curricula utilizing traditional lecture as well as online components; incorporated technology into curriculum; tutored students in analytical writing; advised students on course and career options; researched and wrote scholarly articles for publication, including oral history interviews; presented research and papers at academic conferences; assisted with organization and management of graduate conferences and Tennessee History Day

Classes developed/taught: U.S. Constitutional History (upper level online); U.S. Since 1945 (upper level, online); History of Childhood (upper level, online); U.S. History to 1877; U.S. History to 1877(online); U.S. History Since 1877; U.S. History Since 1877 (online); World Civilization I; World Civilization II

Instructor University of Tennessee-Martin (August 2007-August 2010) developed and taught survey as well as upper level undergraduate history classes, including specialized survey classes for dual-credit as well as prison-based curriculums; incorporated online and distance learning technology into curriculum; tutored students in analytical writing; advised students on course and career options

Classes developed/taught: History of the Supreme Court (upper level), History of U.S. to 1877; History of U.S. Since 1877; Development of World Civilization I

PUBLICATIONS

Southern Graces: Women, Faith, and the Quest for Social Justice in Memphis, Tennessee, 1950-1969, University of Arkansas Press, forthcoming

“Southern Graces: Women, Faith, and the Quest for Social Justice in Jim Crow Memphis,”

Tennessee Women: Their Lives and Times, Volume II, University of Georgia Press, 2015

“Keyes v. Denver School District Number 1,” “26th of July Movement,” “Louisiana,”

“Mississippi,” “Labor Movement,” entries in Encyclopedia of US Latino/a History, Facts on File, forthcoming

“The Berrigan Brothers,” “Free Speech Movement,” “Jim Carroll,” “The Democratic Party,”

“Radio” entries in American Countercultures: An Encyclopedia of Nonconformists, Alternative Lifestyles, and Radical Ideas in U.S. History, 2009 (RUSA Award for Best Reference Work)

“Dangerous Liaisons: The Louisiana Farmers’ Alliance, the Anti-Lottery League, and the Gubernatorial Election of 1892,” North Louisiana Historical Quarterly, Fall/Winter 2008-9

PUBLICATIONS (cont'd)

- “The Mind of Thomas Jefferson,” Book review, Southern Historian, Winter, 2007
“Radicalism in the South Since Reconstruction,” Book Review in Labor History, Fall, 2007
“The Cookie Monster” in The Mercury Reader, Pearson Custom Publications/Simon & Schuster, August 2000; August 2001
News Articles in Memphis Flyer, June 1997 – June 1998
“Jimmy Carter – the Peacemaker” included in the permanent holdings of the James Earl Carter Presidential Library

CONFERENCE PARTICIPATION/PAPERS/PRESENTATIONS

- “Memphis’s Memory: MLK @ 50,” Ohio Valley History Conference, October 2018
“On the Cusp: New Frontiers in Education,” presentation to the Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, February, 2013
“Founding Rivals: Jefferson and Hamilton in Modern America” and panelist, “The American Presidential Election,” American Studies Association of Norway Annual Conference, October, 2012
“Southern Graces: Women, Faith and the Quest for Social Justice, 1950-1969,” Phi Alpha Theta Lecture, University of Memphis, April, 2012
“Southern Graces: Helen Caldwell Riley Day and Anne Shafer,” Mid-Atlantic American Studies Association Annual Conference, March, 2009
“Southern Graces and Public Spaces: Anne Shafer’s Radical Catholicism,” presentation to UTM Faculty Colloquium, November, 2007
“Southern Graces: Women, Faith, and the Quest for Social Justice,” Graduate Conference in African American History, University of Memphis, 2006
“The Great Flood of 1927: Hoover and Public Policy for Disaster Relief,” presentation to High School Scholars Program, University of Memphis, 2006
“Dangerous Liaisons: The Louisiana Farmers’ Alliance, the Anti-Lottery League, and the Gubernatorial Election of 1892,” Southwestern Social Science Association, 2005
“We Are Women of Memphis: The Concerned Women of Memphis and the 1969 Sanitation Strike,” Mid-America Conference on History, 2004
Panel Chair, Graduate Conference in African American History, University of Memphis, 2004, 2010

HONORS & SCHOLARSHIPS

- Fulbright Grant, Fulbright Foundation of Norway, 2012-2013
Dissertation Fellowship, University of Memphis, 2011-2012
Bradbury Prize for Outstanding Article, North Louisiana Historical Society, “Dangerous Liaisons: The Louisiana Farmers’ Alliance, the Anti-Lottery League, and the Gubernatorial Election of 1892,” 2009
Humanities Endowment Travel Funds Award, University of Memphis, 2009
Outstanding Teaching Assistant, Department of History, University of Memphis, 2007
Ben Proctor Prize, Southwestern Social Science Association, “Dangerous Liaisons: The Louisiana Farmers’ Alliance, the Anti-Lottery League, and the Gubernatorial Election of 1892,” 2005

HONORS & SCHOLARSHIPS (cont'd)

Candidate, Everett E. Edwards Award, Journal of Agricultural History, "Dangerous Liaisons: The Louisiana Farmers' Alliance, the Anti-Lottery League, and the Gubernatorial Election of 1892," 2005

Nominee, Thomas W. Briggs Foundation Excellence in Teaching Award, 2004

Student Activities Council Travel Funds Award, University of Memphis, 2004

President's List, University of Memphis, 2003-2007

Graduate Assistantship, University of Memphis, 2003 – 2007; 2010 – 2011

Graduate Assistantship, Northeast Louisiana University, 1992 – 1993

Outstanding Graduating Senior, Phi Alpha Theta, Northeast Louisiana University, 1992

Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, 1992

Council for the Development of French in Louisiana (C.O.D.O.F.I.L.) Scholarship, L'Université de L'Ouest, Angers, France, 1990

President's List, 12 semesters (9 consecutive), Northeast Louisiana University, 1988 – 1994

Deans List, 1 semester, Northeast Louisiana University, 1990

Academic Scholarship, Northeast Louisiana University, 1988 – 1992

PROFESSIONAL/HONOR SOCIETY AFFILIATIONS

American Historical Association

Southern Historical Association

Graduate History Association, University of Memphis, President, 2005 – 2007

Phi Alpha Theta, University of Memphis, Treasurer, 2005 – 2006; Northeast Louisiana University, inducted 1990, President, 1992 – 1994, Treasurer, 1991 – 1992, Historian, 1990 – 1991

Phi Kappa Phi, inducted 1990

Omicron Delta Kappa, inducted 1992

PROFESSIONAL AND COMMUNITY SERVICE

Parent Representative, Board of Directors, Memphis Youth Symphony, 2014 – present

Fulbright Selection Committee, University of Memphis, 2013

Coordinator, Constitution Day, University of Memphis – Department of History, 2013

Central High School PTO, 2011 – present

History Vocabulary Validation Research Study, Educational Testing Service, 2010

Textbook Reviewer, Pearson Longman Publishing, 2007

Volunteer Tutor, Snowden School, 2007 – 2012

Tennessee History Day, Assistant State Coordinator, Western Region Assistant Coordinator, 2006; judge, 2004 – present

Reader, U.S. History Advanced Placement Exams, Educational Testing Service 2006 – 2011

University Appeals Committee, University of Memphis, 2005 – 2008

Students for Political Action, University of Memphis, faculty advisor, 2004

Volunteer, Evergreen Presbyterian Church Recreational Outreach Ministry, 2003 – 2012

Snowden School PTA, 2003 – 2012

Memphis in May, volunteer 1996 – 98; Outstanding Archive Committee member, 1996