

Your Honors Map

Suggested start for your thesis/creative project

	First Year	Second Year	Third Year	Fourth/Final Year
Get the Courses You Need	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Complete 12 or more hours of lower division Honors courses in the first year Review applicable AP, IB, or Governor's School credits with Honors Advisor Attend 1st Year Advising Workshop both semesters 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Finish lower division requirements and start on upper division Honors courses Complete an Honors contract as applicable Attend Thesis Workshops both semesters 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Enroll in upper division Honors courses as needed Discuss Thesis enrollment with Honors Advisor Finalize Thesis Topic and find Faculty Advisor 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Complete Honors requirements, including the Honors Thesis (UH 4950) Complete Honors Intent to Graduate form Verify Honors Minor form has been submitted to your major's Graduation Coordinator
Get Relevant Experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Contact Career Development Office for resume assistance Explore research opportunities with faculty in your major Develop time management strategy and organizational system 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Explore internships and job shadowing Pursue leadership positions (take more responsibility) Revise resume, practice for interviews Brainstorm Thesis topics 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Apply for internships/job shadowing Expand leadership reach Revise resume, practice for interviews Apply for fellowships as applicable 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Seek career conferences to network with peers, professionals in your field Finalize your resume
Get Connected with the Community	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Get involved with a student organization to pursue to interests Volunteer on campus and within the community Attend Honors and campus events Like the Honors Facebook, Twitter, or Instagram pages 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Seek mentors in your field Connect with professors in a pro-active way Continue volunteering Keep up with Honors emails and Social Media announcements 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Continue volunteering Focus on student organization leadership Keep up with Honors emails and Social Media announcements 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Continue volunteering Attend career fairs Personally connect with graduate/professional schools Keep up with Honors emails and Social Media announcements
Get Thinking Globally	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Attend cultural/ethnic events to broaden personal appreciation/awareness Explore foreign languages Check out Education Abroad website and Study Abroad Fairs 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Explore Education Abroad and connect with Education Abroad Ambassadors Volunteer with Conversation Partners Continue foreign language study 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Study Abroad Explore Fulbright and other international scholarships Consider joining a globally focused student organization 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Increase participation in campus/ community/ global events Complete Fulbright or other international scholarship applications.
Get Ready for Life After Graduation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Career Exploration Establish healthy lifestyle habits Attend financial literacy programs Create personal inventory file: academic works, service, research 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Interview a professional in your field(s) of interest Review 4-year plan Update personal inventory file 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Request letters of recommendations Research post-graduate opportunities Prepare for GRE, MCAT, LSAT, etc Gather personal inventory file into marketability package Attend career and internship fairs 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Apply to post-graduate programs Complete Honors Exit Info Card Keep contact information updated

Please contact your Honors Advisor if you have additional questions.