Move for favorable passage
Exercises right for first debate
Senator Rising states that no more senate seats need to be added and students with disabilities should be running for the already specified seats.
Senator McDonald states there are nine open seats, and there are certain colleges that have no one running for the seats in the fall.
Senator Graziano states that there is a true need for students with accessibility issues to have a voice specifically in the senate.
Senator Lewis states that the point is to extend representation to these certain people.
Senator Anderson states that bills have been passed like this before such as the Veteran position.
Senator Jones states that it may not be as beneficial as it is a hassle.
Senator Anderson states that University of Tennessee Knoxville has senators to represent certain groups of people.
Senator Lewis states that adding seats is the student government's decision.

Senator Rising states we are not UT, and we cannot be compared to UT. He states that there has been bills and resolutions like this before that have failed.
